

Name: _____

Book: _____

Your book report should contain three things.

1. A paragraph (5-7 sentences) summarizing the person's life.
2. A paragraph (5-7 sentences) telling a lesson that can be learned by looking at the person's life.
3. An interview (10 questions) asking questions of the person and answering them as if you were the person.

Interview Rubric	Beginning (1-3 points)	Developing (4-6 points)	Accomplished (7-9 points)	Excellent (10 points)	Points
Summary of Life – One paragraph describing the life of the subject	Paragraph is incomplete and gives no details of the life of the subject.	Paragraph is complete and gives few details of the life of the subject	Paragraph is complete and gives many details of the life of the subject	Paragraph shows exceptional effort and gives many details of the life of the subject	/20
Lesson Learned – One paragraph detailing a lesson that can be learned from the life of the subject	Paragraph is incomplete and gives no lesson learned	Paragraph is complete and gives a weak lesson learned	Paragraph is complete and gives a lesson learned	Paragraph shows exceptional effort and gives a lesson learned	/20
Interview Questions – At least 10 answered from the point of view of the subject	1-3 questions. Questions and answers are not creative or accurate	4-6 questions. Questions and answers are not creative or accurate	7-9 questions. Questions and answers are accurate, but not creative	10 questions. Questions and answers are creative and accurate	/20
Spelling/Grammar	Many spelling and grammatical errors	Four or more errors	Less than four errors	Spelling and grammar perfect	/10
Total Points					/80